

REUBEN'S AT ABALONE HOUSE

WHERE: Paternoster, West Coast

Pristine, shimmering white beaches, rocky outcrops, turquoise waters and whitewashed fishermen's houses, blue shutters and colourful fishing boats make Paternoster, an idyllic setting for city-weary travellers. Celebrity chef Reuben Riffel has a famous and quaint seafood restaurant here – Reuben's at Abalone House. His charming upmarket restaurant is comfortable and peaceful with a quirky edge and a relaxed atmosphere. With gorgeous sunsets and fresh sea air, this is the perfect way to unwind after a long day.

EAT YOUR HEART OUT: There's nothing like admiring a glorious sunset and breathing in some fresh sea air while enjoying some well-prepared seafood, like crayfish or pan-fried linefish. With the ocean at its doorstep, Reuben's offers up some fresh and tasty seafood dishes. But look out for his famous pork belly, crispy gnocchi, braised lamb neck, beef fillet or roasted duck breast.

THE WEARY TRAVELLER: Abalone House & Spa, which boasts 10 luxury ground and first floor suites built around a tranquil sheltered garden courtyard and large elegant pool to dip in. Comfortable, luxurious and convenient, the Abalone is the perfect decider to extend your weekend or holiday.

HOW TO GET THERE: From Cape Town on the N2, take the N7 and turn towards Malmesbury. Travel north on the N7 and left at Melkbosstrand. Continue to the R27, turn right and travel north, past Yzerfontein and Langebaan until you see the Vredenburg turn off. Turn left and travel through Vredenburg to Paternoster (155 km).
